

02/08/10 - Beautifully furnished two bedroom duplex with great kitchen

This is quite the loft / duplex apartment, its been very well cared for and has been furnished with great attention to detail and style. At 115sqm it consists of an large open space living area which has three main areas, an inviting dining area with seating for 6 or more comfortably, a large fully equipped modern kitchen area with bar area for breakfast or light meals and a large living space with leather sofa and matching footrest. This is a large open space and really has lots of character.

The bedrooms are not bedrooms as such but mezzanine style sleeping areas, one is queen size, the other is double, not the traditional bedroom layout but it's quite a cool design and keeps the open feeling through the apartment. There is a modern bathroom also below the main staircase in the living area.

Located just a short walk from Park Ciutadella, Calle Princesa in El Born and the wonderful Mundial Seafood Bar, this is a wonderful stylish apartment, ideal for a couple or friends to share. Get in touch if you would like to schedule a visit.
